

Not only can the reward card be used at qualifying locations, but with our vast experience in offering reward merchandise online we are able to tailor an experience to meet member participant behavior and expectations with an online Marketplace to include qualifying products and services for a frictionless online shopping experience along with a card that can be used at brick and mortar stores.

Qualifying Health Related Purchases

- Food and Fresh Groceries: Meats, vegetables, frozen foods, canned goods, digestive health care
- > Baby Care: Diapers, formula, baby clothes, baby toys, car seats
- Everyday Items: Toothpaste, shampoo, deodorant, shaving cream. lotion, sunscreen
- Household Goods: Laundry detergent, paper towels, tissues, food storage bags
- Personal Care: Over the counter medicine, feminine care, family planning, first aid, home health care
- > And hundreds of other products

Benefits of a Health Reward Program

- > Helps individuals and families make healthy choices
- > Encourages survey responses
- Reduces elevated health risks
- Productivity benefits to employers
- Lower absenteeism
- > Can improve employee recruitment and retention
-) Builds employee morale
- > Overall cost savings to the health system

Each time Member partcipants complete a specific check-up, screening or wellness visit, a cash reward is added to their individual Living Well Reward $^{\text{m}}$ card. It works like a debit card, so it can be used like cash. Their Living Well Reward $^{\text{m}}$ card comes with a pre-paid balance that increases automatically for certain healthy habits.